FROM THE WEST.

[From the Virginia Enterprise.]

San Francisco, January 2.

The great banquet at the Occidental Hotel, on New Year's Eve, in honor of the opening of the steam mail service with China and Japan, was one of the most successful, as it was certainly the most important commercial demonstration which ever took place in San Francisco. Upwards of 250 guests, representing the wealth, enterprise and intelligence of the State, were gathered together to give eclat to the sailing of the Colorado, the pioneer vessel of the newly subsidized line of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. No such scene was ever witnessed in California before.

The splendid steamship Colorado sailed on her first trip to Japan and China at noon yesterday, carrying about 250 passengers, $682,287 in treasure, and goods to the value of about $26,000. For an hour before 12 the throng on the wharves was immense, while the lumber piles and piers adjacent, and the rocky hights in the background were blackened with spectators. Among the visitors to the Colorado were Governor Low and many prominent representatives of the commerce, wealth and intellect of the city, who went to extend final greetings to those who had been their guests the night before, and to wish the officers and passengers God speed. Many ladies even drove down to visit the ship and see her off. At noon exactly the lines were parted and the Colorado swung around with the current and headed down the bay, amid a general waving of handkerchiefs and a chorus of parting shouts and cheers. She fired two guns, which were answered by four from the wharf that echoed all around the bay and shook the air about the purple crown of Mount Diablo. Two more guns were fired from the steamer as she passed Yerba Buena and Alcatraz, and sailed smoothly out of the Golden Gate on her great mission of commerce and friendship to Asia. The event was a memorable one in the history of San Francisco, and was much enjoyed by the thousands who witnessed it.

The Archibald brings printed dates from Shanghae to the 3d of November, from which we take the following items of news: The Viceroy of Nanking had taken the field in person, with a considerable force, to assist in crushing out the Shautung Neinfei rebels. Three independent forces of Imperial troops were on the march against the rebels, but the peculation among their commanders had been so great that foreigners did not entertain any hopes of great success in their military operations.

The Spanish squadron, which [illegible] Papeete in July last had arrived [illegible] in Manila. The vessels Numancia, Ironclad, Berenzuela, Concordia and Marquis de la Vittoria were all undergoing extensive repairs.

Madame Anna Bishop had arrived at Hongkong from Manila, and was giving a series of concerts.

The two surviving Catholic priests who escaped to the Corean mountains after the massacre of their companions arrived at Chefoo on the 6th of October. They confirm the news of the murder of the crew of the American schooner General Sherman on the 2d ult. The whole of the Corean male population is said to have been summoned to arms by the King to resist the French.

A special courier had arrived from Pekin with a letter advising the Coreans to treat with, rather than attempt to combat, the French; and at first the King was inclined to follow the advice. Subsequently, however, his counsellors persuaded him to continue the persecution which had been commenced against the Christians, and to persevere in an exclusive policy.

The American schooner Surprise was lost on the 24th of June off the Corean coast. Her crew, after considerable suffering, landed in Corea.

Quincy A. Brooks, mail agent, in charge of the Pacific States and Territories, is transferred to the special agency of Oregon. B. C. Truman, of New York, just arrived, takes charge of the special agency of California. Parties living in California, Nevada and Arizona, wishing to communicate with the special agent, should address their letters to Mr. Truman, at San Francisco. Persons in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, having business with the special agent, should address Mr. Brooks, at Portland, Oregon.

Judge Baldwin, of the U. S. Circuit Court, has rendered an opinion in the case of Caspar and Lipman vs. John M. Avery, Assessor of Internal Revenue, setting aside the verdict rendered for the plaintiffs, and ordering judgment to be entered for defendant. The suit was brought against Mr. Avery to recover the value of certain goods alleged to have been unlawfully seized by the Collector of Internal Revenue. The decision is virtually to the effect that the Collector, and not the Assessor, is the proper party to sue under the circumstances.

CUSTOMS.—There are one hundred and nine Collectors, sixty-four Surveyors, and twelve Naval Officers employed in the Customs service of the United States. There are from 4,500 to 5,000 subordinates under the foregoing one hundred and eighty-five officers. And in addition to this array of customs gatherers, there are at least twelve times as many employed in the Internal Revenue Department; or say from 60,000 to 70,000 tax-gatherers in the service of the United States Government.

LUMBER SAWING.—The sawmill of Sage & McGraw, opposite Bay City, cut, within twelve hours, the incredible amount of 215,564 feet of lumber, an average of about 18,000 feet per hour, and this was done by two pair of gangs, one upright saw, and one four and a half feet circular saw. This is the greatest achievement ever performed by any mill in the State of Michigan, or any other State.—East Saginaw Enterprise.

LUMBER.—The Bangor Whig estimates that during the season the manufacture of lumber in Maine will reach 600,000,000 feet. The total value is not less than $15,000,000, to which must be added the value of the short lumber—shingles, clapboards, laths, pickets, etc.—from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 more. About one-half of this manufacture is done on the Penobscot River and sold at Bangor.

LADIES' dresses abroad are to be unusually short, according to some authorities who have looked into the fashionable future of 1867. The dresses are to be sans crinoline, and "leave off" sensationally just below the knees, figured stockings and high boots to do the rest. Well, we guess the men can stand it if the women can.—Dramatic Chronicle.

Salt Lake City, November 5, 1866.

Late Dispatches.

The Christmas holidays, which one would think would have a tendency to mollify the rancor of political controversy, having passed, Congress seems to have plunged into a seething vortex of excitement. The telegraphic dispatches for the last few days have been full of exciting and intensely interesting news, so far as one may gather information from them. Latterly, we must confess that the telegrams have been sadly jumbled up, and it is at times exceedingly difficult to form an intelligent opinion as to their scope and purport. Just where the trouble in this respect lies we are unable to say, but are satisfied that it does not arise in the office in this city. Some real or fictitious De Sauty at the other end seems to have lost his "connection," and his "continuity" is not at all times unbroken. Every now and then we receive items of news over the line which without something which has gone before, or should have gone before, are either entirely unintelligible or exceedingly indefinite. Much of the news which has come over the wires during the last two days is of this character. Enough, however, has transpired to indicate that matters of unusual importance are transpiring at Washington.

The President has vetoed the District of Columbia franchise bill, which conferred the right of voting on the black population, and our dispatches say that having submitted his Veto message to the Cabinet, including General Grant, all the members except the Secretary of War approved it. The bill passed both Houses by an overwhelming vote, and there is not much doubt that it will be again passed over the veto by the requisite two-thirds. But this interposition of the veto, while it demonstrates the fixed determination of the President in his controversies with Congress, will not tend to promote harmony between the Executive and Legislative branches of the Government. Indeed, General Ashley has introduced in the House his resolutions calling for the impeachment of the President, which resolutions, the telegrams the day before informed us, had been under consideration in the Union caucus. If it be true, as stated, that they have been introduced, there is little doubt that it has been after consultation in caucus, and if so, they will almost certainly pass the House at an early day. We should be surprised, however, if an impeachment trial should be commenced at the present short term of Congress. But this is not all. It is but the beginning of the end. The dispatches intimate that there is strong talk of impeaching some of the Supreme Judges themselves, or at least of reconstructing that tribunal. On the 3d instant Thad. Stevens, the Radical leader in the House, was making a speech in which he took strong ground in favor of a reconstruction of the Supreme Court. The dispatches of the 5th say, that "there is a growing sentiment among the Republicans in the direction of impeachment since the recent decision of the Supreme Court in regard to military trials." Whether this refers to an impeachment of the Court or of the President we are left to conjecture, though probably the latter is the case.

It seems that the Supreme Court has rendered a highly important decision, deeply affecting affairs in the South. It is to be regretted that the telegraph is not more explicit. In what case this decision has been made, is not told, and it is only by gathering up the shreds that we can glean anything like a clear idea of it. The Court appears to have decided that the trial of offenders (in civil life for non-military offences) by military commissions is unconstitutional. Probably the case came up on habeas corpus, on the application of some person convicted by such commission. Whether the decision goes the length of invalidating Military Commissions in time of rebellion and in places where martial law has been declared, does not appear. But the telegrams of the 6th inst. state that "it is not improbable that, in consequence of the late decision of the Supreme Court, Dr. Mudd, Spangler and Arnold, the conspirators, will be brought from the Dry Tortugas and delivered to the civil authorities."

Mr. Stevens, in the House, referring to this decision, said that "it had taken away the protection of loyal men, black and white, and had unsheathed the assassin's dagger." The dispatches also say that it renders the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights bills nullities, and the President is reported as having said that "the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery will yet be declared a nullity."

We conclude that Chief Justice Chase did not unite in rendering the decision referred to, concerning Military Commissions, as the opinion was delivered by Justice Davis.

Putting it all together, it is evident that they are having exciting times at the Federal Capital, and additional dispatches will be anxiously awaited.

NEW MASONIC TEMPLE.—The Masonic Order of Philadelphia decided, at a recent meeting, to erect a new Masonic temple at the corner of Broad and Sansom streets. The lot is one hundred and fifty feet front by two hundred and fifty feet deep, and has three fronts. The lot alone cost one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. The plan of the building has not yet been decided on, but it will be of some ancient order of architecture, and will be fitted up in magnificent style at a cost of not less than half a million dollars.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Pioneer stages on the Placerville route, says the Sacramento Bee of the 31st ult., do not travel at night now on account of the dangers of the mountains. Passengers going east stop over the first night at Strawberry, and arrive in Virginia the third day. Going west they stop over night at Strawberry and Placerville, arriving at San Francisco the third day from Virginia.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

Washington, January 8.

The House passed the District Suffrage bill over the veto by a vote of 113 to 38. Great rejoicing in the galleries.

The Speaker presented a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, transmitting the report of J. R. Browne, of the mineral resources of the States and Territories of the Rocky Mountains.

The House is considering the resolution, declaring that the 13th amendment of the Constitution, ratified last year, prohibits slavery as a punishment for crime.

The House Judiciary Committee this morning had under consideration Mr. Ashley's impeachment resolution, and decided to proceed with the investigation, and summoned Ashley to come before them to-morrow.

The House Post-office Committee had under consideration to-day a proposition to establish a Government telegraph along the post routes, to be under the control of the Postmaster General. They will give audience to telegraph men who favor the scheme at the next meeting.

The Ways and Means Committee were in session to-day on the tax and gold bills, but no conclusion was arrived at.

The Government is in receipt of advices from Europe that there is great demand for our securities.

London, January 8.

The Times says Fred. Bruce has been instructed to ascertain whether the United States will submit the Alabama claims to arbitration, provided the points previously agreed upon are settled.

General Miller, President of the Fenian Council, pronounces Stephens a humbug and cheat, in the London Times.

The Pope has declared he will not abandon Rome.

The Federal Assembly in Switzerland have voted a loan of twelve million francs for the manufacture of breech-loaders.

The new German Parliament was ordered for the 12th of February.

Columbus, January 8.

The Ohio Democratic State Convention organized to-day, Pendleton President. Judge Thurman was nominated for Governor.

The resolutions strongly adhere to the principles heretofore advocated by the party—that the Federal Government is a government of limited power; possesses no powers but such as are expressly delegated in the Constitution; all other powers are reserved to the States, and that the Federal Government is unfitted to legislate for, or administer to, local concerns of States. The resolutions oppose the high protective tariff, and recommend economy in the affairs of the Government—that the States lately in rebellion are in the Union, and have been recognized as such by every department of the Government, and stand on equal footing with the sister States. The resolutions strongly oppose negro suffrage, believing it to be productive of evil to both whites and blacks, and tend to produce a disastrous conflict of races. They also recommend a Democratic convention of delegates from all the States, and that the State Central Committee should be authorized to confer with other proper committees in fixing the time and place.

New York, January 8.

The morning papers all oppose the impeachment of the President.

The Tribune says nothing can be gained by it, no matter how much Johnson deserves it.

The Herald says the President has been guilty of nothing more than his partisan predecessors from Jackson down.

The Times says the charges are nothing more than those repeatedly stated on the floor in the House, and believes the Senate will throw them out.

New York, January 8.

General Gleason, the new Fenian Chief, vice Stephens, served in the 69th New York Irish Regiment during the war, and lately suffered six months imprisonment in Ireland, being caught on a Fenian mission.

New York, January 8.

The Express says it is disgraceful to the organization of the House that the subject of impeachment goes before a Committee of nine members upon which the President has but one friend, and he not an original friend; the eight remaining members will leave the case to Ashley in its preparation. Boutwell will do the work of impeaching in the Committee, and the only hope now is in the Senate, which may respect the law and facts. Meantime the President bears himself with patience and dignity, which ought to command the respect of the country.

Washington, January 8.

Senate—Mr. Williams, of Oregon, introduced a resolution asking the President if the Civil Rights bill had been violated, and what steps had been taken to punish the offenders.

Mr. Cragin, of New Hampshire, called up the bill relative to pension agents, which provides that the President, with the consent of the Senate, shall appoint pension agents for the term of four years—three for each State and Territory.

Mr. Lane said one of its objects was to vacate the offices of the men appointed the past summer by the President. Consideration postponed.

Mr. Lane presented a memorial of the soldiers and sailors, who complain that they are being dismissed to make place for men who plotted against the Nation during the war. Referred.

Senate—The Nebraska bill was taken up. Sumner opposed its admission as a State under the Constitution restricting suffrage to whites. Cowan was against the bill. Grimes explained that he would vote for Brown's amendment, and if adopted, for the bill. He would vote for its admission with negro suffrage, as he doubted the fate of such a question before the Supreme Court. Edmunds maintained that Congress had the right to admit a State and exact conditions. Howard denied the right of imposing any fundamental conditions in relation to suffrage or other matter over which a State has control. Kirkwood advocated the passage of the bill without conditions. Wade made a long argument, repeating points already elicited. Edmunds replied that there was nothing in the Constitution to prevent Congress from enforcing equal rights in Territories of the United States.

Morrill offered a resolution instructing the Secretary of the Senate to send the District Suffrage bill to the Secretary of State, with the usual certificate of its passage by a two-thirds vote of each House. Adopted.

The subject of war contracts was referred to the Military Committee.

Cresswell spoke in favor of the Nebraska bill and the amendment. He said that he was a new convert to negro suffrage, and denied the right of white citizens of a State to disfranchise black citizens. Saulsbury asked if negroes voted in Maryland. Cresswell said they did in 1810; now all were free and the right could not be denied them.

Pending consideration of the bill adjourned, with the understanding that it be taken up to-morrow.

New York, January 9.

Late Mexican advices state that the Liberals under Trenmoles gained a decisive victory over Mejia.

There is no truth in the report that Escobado was hung by Canalles. He was at Monterey on the 23d.

Cortinas is in pursuit of Canalles, who has pronounced in favor of the Juarez.

The administration of General Berisobal as Governor, gives great satisfaction.

New York, January 9.

Seventeen liquor dealers were convicted in Kings county Court of Sessions yesterday, for violation of the revenue law.

The Times' Washington special says that while in conversation with General Grant to-day, in relation to his approval of the President's veto of the District Suffrage bill, the General said he was [illegible] and took no part in the [illegible]; when all went through the President asked his views on the subject, and Grant replied, briefly, that the objection urged by one member of the Cabinet that the bill was unconstitutional because it disfranchised rebels without trial, was, in his opinion, the best part of the bill. With reference to conferring suffrage upon colored people of the District, he always thought it inconsistent on the part of Congress to enforce this right, while it refused to grant it to the same class in their own States. Upon the argument and principles in the message he gave no opinion whatever.

New York, January 9.

The Pennsylvania Legislature appointed a Joint Committee to examine into the charges made, from time to time, of improper influences and corruption used to secure the election of various persons to the United States Senate.

Chicago, January 9.

Washington specials say in the House galleries yesterday the colored people predominated.

House—Took up the Kansas bill, declaratory of the thirteenth amendment of the Constitution, and passed it after a brief debate. Ayes 116, nays 24. The bill makes it felony to sentence or sell a negro into slavery, and is punishable by a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment of ten years.

The debate made it clear that Congress will find some way to reach such men as Judge Pollard of Maryland and others who order negroes sold into slavery.

It came out in the debate, as illustrative of the spirit still existing in Maryland, that a bill had been introduced into the Legislature to indemnify persons against the sentence of United States Courts for violations of the Civil Rights bill. The debate also brought out the fact that a bill had been introduced into that Legislature repealing some of the odious features of the negro laws; but none of her representatives were able to give the least assurance that it would become a law.

The Senate spent all yesterday on the Nebraska bill, and are apparently but little nearer a conclusion than before.

The report of J. Ross Browne, special commissioner for the collection of statistics upon the gold and silver mines of the Pacific coast, will make a document of 300 pages, and affords a valuable summary of the best experience of Californians upon this important subject. A similar but less voluminous report upon the gold and silver mines of the Atlantic coast, by J. W. Taylor, of Minnesota, will be presented soon.

There are now absent from Washington, looking after Senatorial elections, Senators Trumbull, Harris and Pomeroy, and Representatives Stevens, Hubbard and Conkling.

Galveston, January 7.

Gov. Throckmorton, of Texas, has sent a letter to Gen. Heintzelman, expressing regret at the loss of his services as commander of that military district.

Norfolk, January 8.

A large fire took place here this morning, destroying the Atlantic Hotel and a number of stores; loss over $120,000.

Washington, January 7.

In the Senate, Ramsey called up the resolution to print the report of the Commissioner of Public Lands, with accompanying facts, in French, German, Swedish, and English, for distribution at the Paris Exposition, and it was adopted.

Howard gave notice of a motion to amend the bill relative to the selection of grand and petit jurors in Utah. It makes it a misdemeanor to solemnize marriage, unless authorized; also, provides that no man shall claim the society or services of any woman without marriage, or by any sealing ceremony performed without her consent. All children, the fruit of any such pretended union, shall be the heirs of the mother, but not of the father. It also gives power to a woman to sue for services during any such sealed marriage. All persons present at or assisting such ceremony are guilty of misdemeanor. All cases under the Act are to be tried by the District Court.

Pending the question upon Saulsbury's motion to repeal the entire bill, it was postponed till to-morrow.

STAGES TO THE COLORADO.—It is not generally known that two well established lines of stages are now running weekly from Los Angeles to the Colorado River. One, owned by Banning & Co., goes to Fort Yuma, and the other, owned by the Arizona Stage Company, goes to Hardyville. To Yuma, the trip is made in about two days. To Hardyville, at present, five days are required, but there will soon be stations upon the road and changes of animals, which will enable the proprietors to make the trip in three days. Governor McCormick and wife, of Arizona, lately came through by this route, and speak highly of the stage accommodations as now existing. At an early day, a line from Hardyville to Prescott, the capital of the Territory, will be started, and the time from Los Angeles to Prescott will be one week? The mail now goes by this route.—Alta.

NEGRO WHIPPING.—The following dispatch from North Carolina was received by the Washington Chronicle:

Releigh, December 20.

Colonel Bomford, commanding the United States military forces in this State, interfered and prevented the sheriff from inflicting corporal punishment on the person of a negro this morning.

Judge Daniel D. Fowle ordered the indictment of all the military officers who were engaged in the transaction. The negro was returned after receiving eight lashes. The soldiers left the ground. Indictments will be issued against the officers. The negro will be whipped to morrow. Judge Fowle has called on the Governor to carry out the laws of the State.

JOHNNY STEELE, the "young oil prince of Venango," succeeded in 1864 to $150,000 in ready money, and a daily income of $2,000. To-day he is almost penniless. He has lost a dozen fortunes at faro, and the rest went into the pockets of friendly vampires. Hon. John Morrissey took $100,000 from him in two nights, coppering on the ace.

A statue to the memory of Sir John Franklin was recently inaugurated in London, in the presence of a distinguished audience of scientific and titled persons. The venerable Lady Franklin probably made her last appearance in public on this occasion, this being the consummation of the hopes and desires that have actuated her for many years.

PROTECTION AGAINST APACHES.—Governor McCormick of Arizona, has arrived at San Francisco to solicit military aid to better protect the people against the Indians. He finds Generals Halleck and McDowell disposed to grant all reasonable requests of the inhabitants of that Territory.

JEROME B. CLAFLIN, a Chicago operator, is missing and proves a defaulter to the amount of $30,000. He purchased wheat on credit, sold it for cash, and decamped.

A RUSSIAN lost 400,000 francs at a Parisian gambling house, last month, in three nights' play. Ben. Wood 600,000 or 700,000 francs in a single sitting. Vive l'Amerique!

EXCELSIOR ITEMS.—The Gold Hill News, of of the 3d instant says: We gather the following facts regarding Excelsior, from Judge F. Tilford, who has just returned to Virginia from Meadow Lake. The snow when he left was 8 feet deep on the level, and in many places it had drifted to the depth of fifteen and twenty feet. Up to the night before he left the weather had been exceedingly moderate not having frozen any during the fall and winter. The people generally are housed up and will lie in a dormant state until spring. Many of the mines, however, are being vigorously worked. The Golden Eagle Co. will have their mill running within ten days, when good returns may be looked for, as the company have out a large amount of splecdid ore, free gold being visible to the naked eye in all of it. This mill, when completed will be the best in Nevada county, having all the latest improvements in it and being an entirely new mill throughout. The U. S. Grant Co. keep their mill running all the time. The ore yields from $50 to $80 per ton on the average. The California Company have succeeded in getting all their matters straightened up and work is being purhed forward; the stock, which two months since was not worth more than $2 per share, is now worth $15. The Mohawk Co. expect to have their mill in running order within a few weeks. The Enterprise mill, erected on the Enterprise mine, by Goss & Lambard, and which we predicted during last summer would be a failure, has been crushed in by the snow, and the whole concern has gone to wreck. The confidence of the people in the mines of the district, however, remains unshaken, and next summer we have no doubt will prove that Meadow Lake District is a good mining region.

ANOTHER DEFAULTER.—We clip the following from the Stockton Independent of December 31st:

Strange and startling rumors have been oat in this city for the past two weeks, conning alleged heavy defalcations in Wells, go & Co.'s office, but until a few days ago s difficult to arrive at any reasonable conion in regard to the matter. It appears, ever, that under the administration of T. Anthony, the office has gone behind some 000 in different ways, as shown by a careexamination of the books. On Tuesday, 25th instant, a new agent and assistants k possession of the office, and for some s after it was supposed that the affair had n satisfactorily arranged with the company. Friday, however, Mr. Anthony was arreston a charge of embezzlement, and placed r bonds to appear before Judge Baldwin he following morning for examination. hearing closed on Saturday evening, and opinion of the Judge will be made known y. We have refrained from alluding to matter before this, not through any desire ithhold unpleasant facts from the public, because we could not get information on subject that would warrant us in being a y toward blasting the reputation of one for many years, has enjoyed the confie and esteem of this community as well f the company whose interests have been usted to him. In a case of such magnie, mere rumors are delicate articles for lic journals to deal with, but the matter now assumed such a shape as to warrant licity. Mr. Anthony has had ample opnity to redeem his name and character the stigma cast upon them by the unnate affair, and the result of the examin is looked for with considerable interest.
